HELP YES MAKE A DIFFERENCE TODAY, FOR A BETTER TOMORROW!

Our organization provides refuge and assistance to our community members faced with various challenges, including addiction, family issues, domestic violence and abuse, trauma, social issues, illness, and loss. We work with our partners to strengthen the foundation for children, families, and communities. Some accomplishments this past year include:

-  9,381 counseling sessions were provided to children, adults, and families.
-  2,263 group sessions offered support, education, and skill development related to family relationships, parenting, stress management, self-empowerment, recovery, and more.
-  3,320 children and teens received school-based prevention programming.
-  5,000 children throughout Long Island attended Commerce Plaza's Financial Literacy Program.
-  650 community members and business were trained with life saving tools to prevent opioid and alcohol overdoses.
-  550 families benefited from our food pantry and youth recreation programs.
